Dear [redacted] STAT

I appreciate having the opportunity of speaking with you about the plans for the visit of Mr. Gates to the Woodrow Wilson School on Tuesday, September 29.

We are extremely pleased that he will give a public lecture at 4:30 pm and following the lecture meet for dinner and discussion with the policy conference directed by Professor Henry Bienen.

As I told you, we are now planning the publicity for his talk and look forward to receiving from you as soon as possible a glossy photograph of Mr. Gates and his biography. We will begin preparation of the press release and include the title of his talk "The CIA and American Foreign Policy" which you were kind enough to phone in to me. I or the School's communication director, Michael Stoner, will send you a draft of the press release.

I am sending along with this letter a map of the campus marked in red to show the Woodrow Wilson School, Prospect, the faculty club where dinner will be held, and Palmer House where we have reserved overnight accomodations if Mr. Gates spends the night in Princeton. I also am enclosing a diagram of the lobby level of the Woodrow Wilson School where Dodds Auditorium is located, the place where the public lecture is scheduled. Dodds Auditorium holds 198 people and given the interest in Mr. Gates and the topic, we anticipate that it will be filled. Professor Bienen will introduce Mr. Gates.

Closer to the date, I will send you information about the guests who are attending the dinner and other details you would find helpful.

Again, my warm thanks for your interest and help. I look forward to working with you on this important visit for the School.

Sincerely,

Ingrid W. Reed
Assistant Dean for Planning and Administration
